DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 2, 3, 5, 7, 15, and 17-26 are pending. Applicant's arguments and amendments filed 3/15/07 have been entered.

Objections/Rejections Withdrawn

The following objections/rejections as set forth in the Office action mailed 12/15/06 have been withdrawn:

The rejection of claims 2, 3, 5, 7, 15, and 17-25 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huang et al (US 6,310,124) has been withdrawn.

The rejection of claims 2, 3, 5, 7, 15, 17, 18, and 21-25 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rauterkus et al (US 5,089,570) has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 2, 3, 5, 7, 15, 17, 18, and 21-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bock et al (US 4,997,878).

Note that, claim 25 was inadvertently left out in the rejection over Bock et al in the Office action mailed 12/15/06 but has been corrected as set forth above.

Bock et al teach novel hydrophobically associating ter or tetra polymers which are the same as recited by the instant claims. These polymers are useful in a variety of applications. See Abstract and column 6, lines 5-50. The Examiner asserts that a variety of applications as taught by Bock et al would inherently suggest use on one of the substrates as recited by instant claim 22. Furthermore, Bock et al teach that the polymers are high molecular weight water-soluble polymers as recited by the instant claims. See Abstract, column 6, lines 5-45, and claims 1 and 2. Bock et al disclose the claimed invention with sufficient specificity to constitute anticipation.

Accordingly, the teachings of Bock et al anticipate the material limitations of the instant claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 19 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 26 is allowed.

None of the references of record, alone or in combination, teach or suggest the specific amide containing polymer as recited by instant claims 19 and 26.

Response to Arguments

With respect to Bock et al, Applicant states that as the polymers of Bock et al are hydrophobic, they cannot read on the water soluble polymers of the present invention. In response, note that, while Bock et al names the polymers novel hydrophobically associating ter or tetra polymers which can contain sulfonate functionality, Bock et al states that the polymers are high molecular weight water-soluble polymers. See Abstract and column 6, lines 4-45. Furthermore, Bock et al teach a solution comprising about 0.01 to about 2% by weight of a tetrapolymer dissolved in 100 grams of water. See claims 1 and 2. Thus, the Examiner asserts that Bock et al teach the same water-soluble polymers as recited by the instant claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
